BECKER PLANS HIS FIGHT FOR APPEAL

COUNSEL EXPECTS REVERSAL

Police Lieutenant Confers With McIntyre—Appeal on Ground That Verdict Was Against the Weight of Evidence.

New York, Oct. 25.—Police Lieut. Charles Becker spent his hours in the Tombs today planning his fight to annul the verdict of the jury which convicted him last night of the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal.

Becker has lost none of the iron nerve which bore him through the trial and the ordeal of hearing himself condemned as guilty, if his appearance and every action today count for anything. He awoke refreshed from a sound sleep and after a hearty breakfast summoned his chief attorney, John F. McIntyre.

The two conferred for more than an hour and later Mr. McIntyre announced that immediate notice of appeal from the verdict would be filed. Without this appeal Becker, who is due to be sentenced next Wednesday, would, if the usual procedure were followed, take his seat in the electric chair the first week in December. The filing of the notice, however, will act as a stay and it is not impossible that many months will elapse before the ultimate fate of the convicted police officer is determined. In a recent case two years passed before the appeal for a first degree murder was settled.

"I don't mind saying that we expect a reversal," Becker's attorney announced. "The appeal will be on the ground that the verdict was against the weight of evidence; that the justice's charge was of a nature to injure the chances of the defendant; upon the justice's failure to rule that Sam Schepps was an accomplice in the murder and upon the error of law in the refusal of the justice to allow testimony by the defense to go in the record."

Becker's wife visited him this afternoon, and, according to prison attendants, the meeting marked the one moment since the prisoner was indicted, when he seemed on the verge of breaking down. When after an hour's call Mrs. Becker emerged from the prison gate it could be seen that she had been weeping.

Either "Whitey" Lewis or "Lefty Louie" will be the next of the seven men indicted for the murder to be placed on trial, District Attorney Whitman announced tonight. The date fixed is November 7th. Meanwhile Jack Rose, "Bridgie" Webber, Harry Vallon and Sam Schepps, the four informers, will be kept in the West Side prison.

Schepps, whose attitude toward his incarceration thus far has been one of complete docility, today protested to the district attorney that he had been in jail long enough, and his counsel hinted that he would take legal action to obtain his client's release.

Schepps is due to be arraigned Monday on the vagrancy charge under which he was confined and it was reported tonight that the district attorney would ask that he be held under $25,000 bail. Rose also is anxious for his release.

"What these informers want now is not bail," said District Attorney Whitman tonight, "but extra iron doors on their cells so they'll feel safe."

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL WON

Wilmington Football Team Defeated Washington, N. C., Yesterday

A message received here last night by a member of the High School Athletic Association brought the pleasing information that the Wilmington High School football team defeated the Washington High School eleven on the grounds of the latter yesterday afternoon by a score of 6 to 0. The telegram did not contain any particulars of the game, but as the score indicates it was a close contest and was doubtless hard fought on both sides. The boys return to the city at noon today.

Next Saturday the High School boys will play Donaldson Military Academy at Fayetteville, then go to Greensboro for a game with the Greensboro High School team on Monday. On November 11th the Greensboro team comes here for a game. A number of other games are to be played during the season.

WALLACE AND TEACHEY.

Interesting Game That Was Not Played Between School Teams.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wallace, N. C., Oct. 25.—The baseball teams of the graded school here and the Teachey High School, crossed bats on the local diamond this afternoon in what promised to be a very interesting game; but in the third inning Prof. Shaw, of Teachey, called his team off because John Lamb, of the Wallace team, slugged too hard at the balls and he was afraid his catcher might be struck with the bat. The umpire called the game 9 to 0 in favor of Wallace.

BULGARS REST ON THEIR VICTORIES

No Fighting Along Line from Kirk Killisseh to Adrianople

UNDECIDED AS TO ATTACK

Not Known Yet if They Will Try a Siege or Assault—Swift Progress of the War — Intervention Is Now Being Talked.

London, Oct. 25.—After a four days' heavy battle the Bulgarians are resting. There were no reports of fighting today along the line from Kirk Killisseh to Adrianople. The Bulgarians have not yet decided whether they will attempt to capture Adrianople by assault or to starve out its garrison by siege. The full extent of the Turkish disaster at Kirk Kilisseh is still unknown, but it is almost certain that the bulk of the garrison there effected a retreat before the town fell into the hands of the Bulgarians.

The early capture of Kirk Kilisseh was a great surprise, even to Bulgarian staff officers and their allies, and the swift progress of the war was unexpected by Europe generally. It has been only nine days since Turkey declared war and yet events have marched to the point where the possibility of intervention by the powers already is talked of.

Much interest centers in the nature of the alliance of the Balkan States. It is said on good authority that one of the provisions of that alliance is that no one State shall conclude peace without the others agreeing to do so.

Next in importance to the operations in Thrace is the struggle between the Servians and the Turks in the Kumanova region. Constantinople at last admits the success of the Servian army. The Servians yesterday captured two towns, Vuchitrin and Gilan, on the road between Mitrovitza and Vranya.

The Montenegrins are pressing their attack on Scutari. It is reported that the Turkish garrison at Scutari has retired to the heights of Sadrina, south of the town. This action is interpreted as a preparation to evacuate Scutari.

Situation is Unchanged.

Sofia, Oct. 25.—The situation before Adrianople is unchanged. In the fighting at Yuruk, the Turks are reported to have lost about 300 men killed and 500 taken prisoners, and in addition to have had taken from them three quick-firing guns and 12 ammunition wagons.

At Kird Chali, 40 miles west of Mustapha Pasha, the Bulgarians seized a depot containing 1,000,000 cartridges, 40 cases of shells and large stores of food.

In the Razlog district the Bulgarians are masters of the upper reaches of the Mesta river. In this district, near Mahomia, a Turkish infantry regiment has been annihilated and a battalion of Turkish regulars and irregulars is surrounded in the town by Bulgarian troops.

The News From Constantinople.

Constantinople, Oct. 25.—The Sultan today had an audience of the Minister of War and the Minister of Works on the occasion of their departure for the front. The departure of the foreign military attaches for the seat of war again has been postponed, this time to next Monday.

Tramway service in Constantinople has been suspended and all the horses have been requisitioned for war purposes.

It is still maintained that the reported capture of Kirk Kilisseh by the Bulgarians is fictitious; that communication with the city is still working regularly and the Turkish troops are holding all their positions between Kirk Kilisseh and Adrianople.

An admission of a Servian success at Kumanova reached here today in a dispatch from Saloniki, which said that the Servian army operating in that region had succeeded in regaining their lost ground.

A dispatch from Adrianople, timed 3 o'clock, says that all is tranquil, and says no firing has taken place since yesterday.

Pathetic scenes are being witnessed at Constantinople railroad stations, when daily there is an influx of aged refugees and children from frontier villages. Four thousand refugees from Adrianople and Kirk Kilisseh arrived today.

Plans of Balkan Alliance

London, Oct. 25.—The final attack by the Bulgarians on Kirk Kilesseh lasted 30 hours, according to a special dispatch from Slara Zagora. It culminated in a bayonet charge, after which the Turks retreated to the east in the direction of a column of Bulgarian troops advancing from the Vizara road. Another special dispatch says the Bulgarians were repulsed when they attacked Maras at the junction of the rivers Maritza and Arda, opposite Adrianople. The losses of

COL. ROOSEVELT IS GUARDED

Receives Number of Threatening Letters and Stranger Tries to Force His Way in the House—Will Speak Wednesday.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 25.—On account of a number of threatening letters received by Col. Roosevelt and the presence in Oyster Bay of a tsarnger who attempted today to make his way to the colonel's house, steps were taken tonight to guard the life of the ex-President. A tentative decision was reached to engage one or two men to protect Col. Rosevelt during the remainder of the campaign and for a time thereafter if the colonel has not recovered sufficiently by election day to be able to defend himself.

Col. Roosevelt's condition continued to improve today and his physicians said he would be able to speak at the Madison Square Garden meeting in New York on Wednesday night if no unforeseen complications arise. But they said that he would be unable to do any further campaigning.

The man who attempted to see Col. Roosevelt arrived in Oyster Bay this afternoon and set out on foot for Sagamore Hill. He was met at the door by the colonel's secretary and insisted that he must see the ex-President, although told that no visitors were being received. He was a tall, well dressed man with a flowing black mustache and a sombrero which gave him the appearance of a Westerner. He would give no reason for asking to see the colonel, but persisted in his demands until he was cut off sharply and told to leave Sagamore Hill. He then asked to see Mrs. Roosevelt. The colonel's secretary finally persuaded him that it was useless and he went away. There was nothing about the man's manner to suggest that he would attempt violence and he was described by those who saw him as being apparently harmless.

The stranger returned to the village and wrote a long, rambling letter to Col. Roosevelt. Then he disappeared and no trace of him could be found in Oyster Bay tonight, and it was not known whether he had left.

The recent attempt on Col. Roosevelt's life was said by Dr. Geo. Faller, of Oyster Bay, one of the colonel's physicians, to have stirred up cranks and to be responsible for the letters which Col. Roosevelt has received since his return to Oyster Bay. The colonel's physicians wish to have him get out of doors as soon as possible, believing that he will be benefitted greatly by doing so, but they are unwilling to risk the chance of another attack.

To Frank Tyree, United States marshal, in West Virginia, the guarding of Col. Roosevelt will be entrusted if his services can be secured.

Mr. Tyree is an old secret service man, who was a member of President Roosevelt's personal guard. If he is unable to come to Oyster Bay private detectives probably will be engaged.

LOCAL TUGS MISSING.

Fear Felt for Safety of Gladiator and Argonauta, of Wilmington.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25.—It is reported in marine circles that the tugs Gladiator and Argonauta, of Wilmington, N. C., are being sought for at sea by two revenue cutters. The tugs are reported several days overdue and are believed to have been caught in the northeast gale that swept the Carolina coast last Sunday and Monday. They were last seen off Frying Pan Shoals, but nothing has been heard from them in several days.

OUTLINES

The Clapp Committee will recess today till after the election, after hearing the testimony of Senator Beveridge.

According to estimates of Postmaster General Hitchcock, $283,086,760 will be required for the support of the Postal Service next year.

The situation before Adrianople was unchanged yesterday. The Bulgarians followed up the capture of Kirk Kilisseh with some minor victories.

The statement of contributions and expenditures of the Democratic National Committee as filed with the chief clerk of the House yesterday shows contributions of $678,364 and expenditures of $562,682.21.

Former Police Lieut. Becker, although convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, lost none of his iron nerve yesterday and conferred with his counsel in regard to taking an appeal.

Owing to numerous threatening letters and the presence of a stranger at Oyster Bay, who tried to force his way in to Col. Roosevelt's home yesterday, it was decided to guard the ex-President during the remainder of the campaign.

Herbert S. Hockin, secretary of the Iron Workers, and one of the defendants in the "dynamite conspiracy" case, gave the government information on his fellow defendants, according to the testimony of witnesses yesterday.

The United States government may send a large force to Cuba to preserve order during the election, as severe rioting has already begun to take place and it is feared there will be a serious revolutionary movement started by the vanquished party after the election.

EXPENSES OF THEIR CAMPAIGN

Senatorial Candidates in North Carolina File Detailed Statements of What They Have Spent—Items of Three.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25.—Senator F. M. Simmons, Governor W. W. Kitchin and Chief Justice Walter Clark, candidates for the United States Senate, in the strenuous campaign now pending, made public tonight their campaign expenses to date as required by the United States statute and Senator Simmons gave out an additional statement showing his total expenses that include stationery, telegrams, telephones, postage, letter writing, printing, other than newspapers, and personal traveling expenses, none of which are required to be reported under the statute.

Senator Simmons' total expenses required to be reported under the statute amounted to $5,788. Governor Kitchin's total expenses reported under the statute amounted to $5,452, and Judge Clark's expenses under the statute amounted to $1,420.

Senator Simmons is the only candidate who reports additional expenses not required to be reported, the other two candidates saying that the agreement did not include public expenses other than those reported to Washington, and they, therefore, made no effort to gather these items. The additional expenses of Senator Simmons for postage, printing other than newspapers, traveling expenses and other items, amounted to $6,037, bringing his entire expenses for the entire campaign up to $11,825. Senator Simmons paid for newspaper advertising $2,341. Of this the News and Observer received $1,572; Charlotte Observer, $245; Greensboro News and Gazette News, $69. Governor Kitchin's report shows $1,600 paid for newspaper advertising of which the News and Observer received $751; Charlotte Observer $466; and Greensboro News $18. Judge Clark's statement shows $571 paid for newspaper advertising, the News and Observer receiving $113; Charlotte Observer $93. The News, Charlotte, $40, and Greensboro News, $3.

Bruce Craven received $375 salary and expenses. Others who received much smaller amounts for campaign work expenses are F. D. Hackett, W. A. Nicholson, J. M. Sharp, C. O. McMichael, H. S. Ward, D. M. Clark, J. P. W. Glidewell, E. R. Pace. Senator Simmons reports $2,416 contributed by friends toward his campaign expenses, giving the names of the contributors. Governor Kitchin reports $592 contributed by friends toward his campaign. Judge Clark reports that no contributions have been made toward his campaign expenses.

Corovoda, Alaska, Oct. 25.—The Katmai volcano, which caused great damage on the Alaskan peninsula and adjacent islands last June, is believed to be in violent eruption again, the mail steamer Dora having reported by wireless today that she is anchored off Whale Island, unable to proceed further westward on her voyage to Dutch Harbor, because of darkness caused by falling volcanic ashes.

HOCKIN "SQUEALED," FOUR MEN TESTIFY

Say Iron Workers' Secretary Double-Crossed Fellow Defendants

DIDN'T WANT TO BE ONLY ONE

Offered to Give Information to Federal Grand Jury but Was Sent To the District Attorney—Warned the Witness

Indianapolis, Oct. 25.—Herbert S. Hockin, a defendant in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial, who succeeded John J. McNamara, the dynamiter, as secretary of the Iron Workers Union, was identified by four witnesses today as having given information to the government against his 44 fellow defendants.

Walter Drew, of New York, counsel for the National Erectors Association, testified that Hockin had said: "I know they've got me, but I don't want to be the only one."

The witness said that during the sessions last Winter of the Federal grand jury, which returned indictments, Hockin offered to give information, but was turned away with the remark "Go to the district attorney and make a clean breast of it. He is the only person with authority to make promises."

"Hockin came to me several times and told me my life was in danger," said Mr. Drew. "He told me fellows on the Pacific coast, naming Olaf Tveitmoe and Ed. Nockels, were after me and that I had better look out for a fellow named John Stevens, of Chicago. He said he would warn me later when I might expect danger."

"Another time he came to my room at a club and in the presence of J. F. Foster, a detective, arranged to let us have the key of the iron workers' office so we might put in a telephone device by which we would be able at all times to record what President Frank M. Ryan and others said about the dynamiting. At first Hockin said, 'you know I've got too much brains to get mixed up with McNamara,' but when I replied, 'no you haven't any brains, but only a low, cunning sneak, and we've got the goods on you,' he weakened."

Mr. Drew related that a strike had been declared by the Iron Workers Union in 1905 and explosions on work of members of the Erectors Association began soon after that time.

Senator J. W. Kern, for the defense asked, "aren't one of the members of the Erectors Association a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation?"

"I believe it is," said Mr. Drew.

Hockin is the man who Ortie E. McManigal said put him in the dynamiting business and who engineered many of the jobs blown up by McManigal and James McNamara. He is also accused by the government of having "double-crossed" the union officials.

Thomas F. Markey, a photographer, testified he saw Hockin visit the grand jury room with bundles of papers and later saw him in the Iron Workers' office when detectives visited it to secure photographs of letters. The witness said Hockin on one occasion had said, "I've got to get away from here before any one sees me."

Charles L. Schmidt, a deputy United States marshal, also said Hockin had visited the Federal building with papers.

When attorneys objected to a request that Hockin stand up Judge A. B. Anderson said: "Stand up Hockin. It's absurd to ask a jury to try a case without knowing whether the defendant is present."

Hockin then stood up.

G. T. Washburn, of Chicago, testified about installing the telephone device in the Iron Workers' headquarters. He said it was done before day light last December, himself and the detective walking through the office building barefooted so as not to make any noise. He said the door was unlocked by Detective Foster.

SURELY, STEADILY FORGING TO GOAL

Wilson Campaign Contributions Coming Along Very Satisfactorily

ROOSTER TO CROW FOR WILSON

A Specimen of Woodrow Wilson's Own Handiwork On Display at De-Rossett's—Traveling Men to Help—Boys and Girls

Althought the total of yesterday's contributions to the Wilson fund is a little less than $100 as shown by the list appended, several of the teams did not report last night and several substantial amounts were added to what is known as the "conditional subscription list," making the goal all the more easily attained when the general public have done all that they can and a certain amount is reached.

These conditional subscriptions will soon begin to fall due as the team contributions grow higher and higher and the task is now easy as may be evidenced from the tabulation of the men and amounts needed, published elsewhere in today's paper. It will be seen that all the big amounts needed have disappeared from the list and even the number of dollar contributions have been cut in half. It now remains for the teams to keep up the work, put just a little more ginger in the contest and the goal will be reached. The work of these teams thus far has devolved largely upon two or three members of each team. They feel that it is now time all team members were awakening to a sense of their civic responsibility in this movement and it is hoped that they will get busy today.

"Cock to Crow for Wilson"

The committee at work for campaign subscriptions have been peculiarly fortunate in securing a talisman, the handiwork undoubtedly of Governor Woodrow Wilson himself while he was a resident of Wilmington with his venerable father, Dr. Wilson, for so long pastor of the First Presbyterian church here. Among the contemporaries of the Wilson boys—James Woodrow and Joseph R.—at that time, was ex-Mayor, now Chief of Police, John J. Fowler. In those days Mr. Fowler owned a highly-prized Polish silver and gold-crested cock which unluckily one day went the way of all other good cocks and the proud young owner was distressed nigh unto death. The Wilson brothers, or one of them at least, in those days had achieved something of a reputation as a taxidermist and they were besought by young Fowler to preserve at least the pristine beauty of the much-cherished cock. The fowl was sent over to the Wilson home in Wilmington and a few days brought it forth stuffed to the "queen's taste," figuratively speaking, of course, and mounted upon a pedestal of wood in all its pristine beauty. For many years the mounted cock occupied a prominent place in the Fowler homestead in Wilmington but with the passing of years, it fell into decay and was at last consigned to the plunder room in the attic. Only last year when Governor Wilson loomed large as a Presidential candidate did an interest again attach to the rooster and he was promptly brought out. Mr. Fowler in making a generous contribution to the Wilson campaign fund mentioned the incident of the stuffed cock to a member of the committee soliciting subscriptions and although he did not know to which of the Wilson boys' handicraft the creation was due, the matter was at once taken up with Assistant Secretary Walker Vick, at Democratic headquarters, and he secured a statement from Governor Wilson's brother, Mr. Joseph R. Wilson, to the effect that he had never practiced the gentle art of taxidermy, therefore the "offense as charged" was fixed irrevocably on the next President himself. At the request of the committee in charge of campaign for subscriptions in Wilmington the cock was turned over to Mr. W. W. King, Jr., of the Solomon stores, in this city, and after being renovated somewhat, the gentleman is now presented to the Wilmington public as an example of one of the

CARUSO WAS PRESENT

Near Benoit When He Was Stabbed And Lopizzo Girl Shot

Salem, Mass., Oct. 25.—Joseph Caruso, defendant with Joseph J. Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti, on trial for the murder of Anna Lopizzo, victim of the Lawrence textile strike riots, was declared by witnesses today to have been present when Policeman Oscar Benoit was stabbed and the Lopizzo girl shot on the evening of January 29th, last. Edward Marshall, a policeman who was with Benoit on that night, testified that Caruso, accompanied by Salvatore Scuito, now a fugitive, stood directly behind Benoit immediately before the shooting and stabbing. Benoit himself testified that he had seen Caruso, armed with a club, a few minutes before he received the knife wound.

Marshall under cross-examination, said he took hold of his fellow officer's arm and said: "Get out of here Oscar, look out for yourself."

One of the strikers had called Benoit a vile name, Marshall said, and it looked like trouble, as the two had been cut off from their fellow officers by the mob.

"There were two men behind Benoit and two in front of him, one of whom had sworn at him," said Marshall. "Just then I heard shots and I took hold of Benoit and turned him around. It was at that moment he was stabbed."

The witness described the two men who had been standing behind Benoit and said one man was Scuito and the other, in his opinion, Caruso.

Officer Benoit, when cross-examined, said he and Marshall, who had been left alone at Garden and Union streets, were endangered.

"What was there to be afraid of?" asked Caruso's attorney.

"The mob was all around us," said Benoit. "Officer Marshall had just told me to look out and had turned me around when I felt a blow in the back. Then I saw a flash and seemed to feel heat. I heard the report of a revolver also and just at that moment I saw a woman on the opposite side of the street fall."

Other shots were fired in rapid succession, Benoit said, but he could not swear that the shot he felt whiz by him was the shot that killed Anna Lopizzo.

Asked about his recognition of Caruso among the strikers, Benoit said: "Caruso was one of the men at the head of the crowd which rushed upon us. He was one of the men who approached me just before I was stabbed and before the shooting."

Several militia and police officers were examined during the day and closely questioned by both prosecution and defense as to whether any shots were fired by soldiers or patrolmen. All denied that any order to shoot had been given, or that any shots were fired by men under their command.

Police Sergeant Walter Spranger admitted that at one time he had ordered his men to get their guns ready, but said they did not fire. I was in charge of a squad of policemen which was driving the crowd at Garden and Union streets that night, Spranger testified.

"We have been resisted by strikers, repeatedly had been pelted with missles and had driven the people back again and again with our clubs. When we heard the shooting we were about a block away. I ordered the men to rush to the scene and as we approached I told them to get their guns ready. There was no such order until the shooting was all over."

Just before adjournment Eugene Bencrodo, a brother of Detective Charles Bencrodo, corroborated the latter's testimony relating to the speech made to strikers by Giovannitti, advising them to "prowl like wild animals at night for the blood of the scabs."

CAPE FEAR COUNTRY CLUB

Annual Meeting of the Members Was Held Last Night—Club Votes to Issue Bonds to the Extent Of $20,000

At the annual meeting of the members of the Cape Fear Country Club, held at the handsome club house on the golf links east of the city last night, the governing board was authorized to issue $20,000 worth of bonds to be secured by a first mortgage on the club property. The governing board will doubtless proceed at once to arrange for the bonds. The purpose of the bond issue is to liquidate the club's indebtedness and to make further improvements on the grounds now and to set aside a portion for use not earlier than January 1st, 1915.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. W. A. Dick, the president, and Mr. Milton Calder, the retiring secretary and treasurer, kept a record of the proceedings. There was a fairly large attendance of the members and great interest was shown. Interest in the club is ever on the increase. Since the last annual meeting extensive improvements have been made to the club house, a dining room and two locker rooms having been provided, and the grounds also have been improved. The building and its equipment is estimated at $9,000 and the club owns 57 acres of valuable land on which the golf links are located. The club bought the property about a year ago and in doing so incurred an indebtedness, which it is desired to liquidate by the bond issue that has been authorized. Five thousand dollars of the amount is to be restricted for use in the way of permanent improvements and betterments to the property after January 1st, 1915. This was thought wise for the reason that two years from now certain improvements might occur to the members which have not yet received consideration. The balance will be used to take care of the indebtedness and leave a margin with which to by additional equipment for the club.

Mr. W. A. Dick was re-elected president; Mr. C. VanLeuven, who has been captain of the greens, was named as vice president; Mr. J. F. Sears was elected secretary and treasurer; Capt. Donald MacRae was elected captain of the greens, and Mr. C. E. Taylor, Jr., was elected captain of tennis. Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur was re-elected a member of the govering board, and Mr. Milton Calder, the retiring secretary, was also elected a member. Messrs. Gouverneur and Calder and the officers named constitute the governing board.

BOYS AND GIRLS TO HELP

Their Names Will be Included In the Blue Book for Wilson

It was announced yesterday by the State Finance Committee that in arranging the Blue Book to be issued soon after the election, showing the names, occupations and amounts contributed for the Woodrow Wilson campaign fund in this State, the boys and girls of 1912 will be given a prominent place. Under the head "Boys and Girls of 1912" all young people who contribute to the fund to help elect Woodrow Wilson for President will have their names printed in an alphabetical list. In addition to this each young contributor will be presented with a handsome certificate suitable for framing that will show that he or she contributed to the fund. All the boys and girls in Wilmington should take part in this. It makes no difference where the dollar comes from. If the young person cannot give the money himself, then he might solicit it from a gentleman friend. In this case the friend will be given credit for his contribution and the boy or girl will also receive credit in the Blue Book. Contributions should be turned in to any of the team captains or to Mr. W. A. McGirt at his office on Water street, near Princess.

ATTORNEYS COME TO BLOWS.

And General Melee Follows at Trial of Vaughn.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 25.—The sensational feature of the Vaughn trial was a fisticuff between two lawyers, J. J. McSwain, of the prosecution, having attacked B. F. Martin, of the defense, for a certain reference impugning his honesty of motive concering the bringing out of evidence. After the first blow a general melee followed, and for a time it seemed a riot was imminent. A few words from Judge Purdy, however, quelled the disturbance. Mr. Martin was badly scarred about the face as a result of the blows from Mr. McSwain.

The fight immediately followed the cross-examination of one of the three little girls whom it is charged Vaughn had criminally maltreated while superintendent of the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home. Five witnesses were examined during the day, including several physicians.

It is possible that the case may go to the jury tomorrow night.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 25.—An attempt to derail and rob a northbound Midland Valley passenger train 30 miles south of Tulsa early tonight failed when the train was brought to a stop within a few feet of an obstruction of railroad ties piled on the track. Several men armed with rifles, emerged from a clump of trees when the train stopped, but ran when trainmen and passengers appeared. A posse started in pursuit of the men tonight.

Straight talk to men who smoke jimmy pipes

The last two years has seen a revolution in pipe-smoking. Prince Albert came on deck with a brand new deal. Here was tobacco with wonderful flavor and fragrance, without a touch of rankness. Here was tobacco that burned long but burned free and steady, that held its fire close and never sogged but burned down to dust-fine ashes. Here was tobacco you could smoke all day and it wouldn't bite your tongue.

Prince Albert brought the first notable improvement in pipe tobacco since the days of Walter Raleigh. It has done more in two years to make the pipe popular than all other smoking tobaccos in a generation.

Now, men, we want you to know why Prince Albert is different, why it's in a class of its own. The reason is the Prince Albert process. This is what makes P. A. what it is.

This process was discovered by a well-known German scientist who dearly loved a pipe and experimented with smoking tobaccos as a side line. He knew he had hit upon a big thing in this process. So did we when this company acquired it. Experts were put on the job of perfecting it. The work took three years and cost a bunch of money. But we knew it would make a wonderful smoking tobacco and we had the faith to back it.

The United States Patent on this process was granted July 30, 1907.

Now, men, this is the showdown. If you haven't tried Prince Albert, try it now. Put it to the jimmy pipe test. Let the tobacco smoke for itself. Then you'll understand what this patent Prince Albert process means to you. You'll know why it has revolutionized pipe-smoking and started two men to smoking a pipe where one smoked before.

PRINCE ALBERT

You'll enjoy it rolled up into a cigarette as well as in a jimmy pipe. We tell you, men, here is the real cigarette—so different in freshness, fragrance and flavor that it runs the dust-brands and the chaff-brands right off the smoke map!

You roll up a cigarette of P. A. tobacco and know what's doing. Why, it sets a pace for your satisfaction that no other tobacco ever can replace. Buy one of the handy packages and take a new lease on cigarette joy.

All on-the-job dealers sell Prince Albert everywhere. Ten cents in the famous tidy red tin, five cents in the toppy red cloth bag; also in handsome half-pound or pound tin humidor and a pound humidor of crystal glass.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Damage Suit Tried—Negro State Fair —Enterprise Chartered — Police Auto Patrol Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25.—A jury in Wake Superior Court has given a verdict of $7,500 to Engineer J. T. Horton against the Seaboard Air Line as damages sustained in injury to his eyesight through the bursting of the glass tube of the steam gauge on a locomotive he was running. The trial required Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The suit was for $50,000.

The Ernul Union Warehouse Co., of Ernuls, Craven county, was chartered today with $1,000 capital by T. M. Arthur, C. J. Heath and others, of Vanceboro, for storage of cotton, corn, tobacco and other farm products.

There is also a charter for The Dunn Silk Mills Co., capital $25,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by A. E. McNeill, T. Draughton, J. W. Johnson, E. G. Smith, Samuel Draughton and others, for manufacture of silk goods of all kinds, making shirts, hosiery and other goods.

Major W. A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture, is just back from the Charlotte and the Oxford fairs, both of which he says were remarkably successful. He declares that in view of the great handicap that the Charlotte fair had through the burning of its buildings the fair has been restored and extended during the year to a wonderful degree. The Oxford fair, he says, was the biggest and most successful yet held in Granville.

Berry O'Kelly, of Method, a wealthy negro farmer and merchant, has been elected president of the negro State Fair to succeed E. E. Bryan, of Tarboro; J. E. Hamlin, of Raleigh, was succeeded as secretary by Dr. J. H. Lovell, of Raleigh, and M. Watts, was succeeded by A. C. W. Hoover, of Raleigh, as treasurer. The change of officers came about through a fight against the old officers in which a receivership was threatened for the fair association if the old officers did not step down and out without a fight. The attendance on the negro fair this year has been quite large. There is to be a complete reorganization of the fair and its management under the new officers, including a revision of constitution and by-laws governing it.

Dr. Chas. W. Dabney, a former North Carolinian and resident of Raleigh, and now president of the University of Cincinnati, is here for a few days and is being heartily welcomed back to North Carolina. Twenty-five years ago he was in charge of the North Carolina Experiment Station Work, then located at the University of North Carolina. He moved to Raleigh in the same work and resided here for seven years. He went to the University of Tennessee as president, and was in charge of this institution for 15 years, going from there to the University of Cincinnati, which has an enrollment of 1,900 students, men and women.

Dr. Norwood G. Carroll, who was severely injured Wednesday night of State fair week in an automobile accident, is thought to be recovering now nicely from his injuries. One of his eyes seems to have sustained the most serious injury since there has been no development of internal injuries. The eye is quite badly injured and it is feared that the injury may be permanent if it does not result in the complete loss of the sight of that eye.

Raleigh has just run out a fine 60-horsepower Knox automobile patrol wagon for the police department to take the place of the old horse-drawn wagon that has been in use for a number of years. The two auto chemical and hose wagons for the fire department have not yet arrived.

SAMPSON SUPERIOR COURT.

McCullen Murder Trial on at Clinton. Two Deaths.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 25.—In the Superior Court here this week, Judge Carter presiding, the case against W. R. McCullen and his son, James McCullen, for murder, is being tried. Yesterday and today were taken up in selecting the jury which is composed entirely of farmers. The McCullens are well known white men and are charged with shooting a neighbor named Jonah Simmons one night last Summer from ambush. There is a strong array of counsel on both sides and the case will be hard fought.

Dr Charles S. Boyette, a prominent dentist and leading citizen, died at his home here early today from heart trouble. He had been confined to his home about a month and his death while expected, came as a shock to the community, which loved and respected him. He leaves besides a wife three sons, fine young fellows, nearly grown. The funeral will be held from the family residence tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock under the auspices of the Masons and the Odd Fellows, of both of which fraternities he was an esteemed member. The services will be conducted by Rev. B. F. Deloatch, pastor of the Baptist church, in which Dr. Boyette had his membership for many years and of which he was deacon. His death is a distinct loss to Clinton and the entire community.

News was received here today of the death of James S. Bizzell, a former resident of Clinton, at his home in Tampa, Fla., after a lingering illness. Mr. Bizzell was for many years clerk of the Superior Court of Sampson county, and was a most capable and popular official. He was widely known and had a great many friends. He leaves a widow and several children. The burial was in the cemetery at Tampa.

BALL PLAYERS RETURN.

Suggs and Benton Back Home—Artesian Well—Political Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 25.—George Suggs, the premier pitcher of the Cincinnati National League baseball team, returned to his home here yesterday, after a successful season with the Reds. He was accompanied by Rube Benton, another North Carolinian, who starred with the Reds' pitching staff during the past season. Benton will spend some time in Kinston as the guest of Suggs before going to his home in Clinton, to spend the off-season months. Suggs and Benton are concededly the two leaders of the Cincinnati ball team's pitching staff, and, in fact, they are in the stellar class of the whole National League. Many fans believe had a strong team behind them they could have pitched their team to victory.

Fred L. Sutton, Esq., secretary of the Kinston Chamber of Commerce, has taken steps for the organization of the college alumni in Kinston who favor the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson for the Presidency, in compliance with the request of J. G. deR. Hamilton, of Chapel Hill, State organization manager of the National Woodrow Wilson College Men's League.

"Dynamite" Wilkins, a well driver, has succeeded in getting what promises to become a record flow for artesian wells in this section. Mr. Wilkins, who is one of the best known experts in the South and who has sunk many wells in this vicinity, has been rewarded with a 60-gallon stream at the Caswell Cotton Mills, which equals any flow previously secured from a well here, and when the three-inch drill is extracted the gusher is expected to attain a capacity of 100 gallons per minute. The shaft was driven to a depth of 310 feet.

A large and enthusiastic Democratic gathering at Contentnea Neck, in Lenoir county, yesterday, was addressed by Hon. N. J Rouse, of Kinston. A larger crowd than was expected heard the address, and leading Democrats of the district claim that not a few converts were made for the cause of Wilson and Craig. The occasion was the visit of the candidates to that township as a part of the regular county canvass, and was made a cause for an old fashioned political gathering, not the least enjoyable feature of which was a barbecue dinner. Nearly every Democratic voter in the precinct was present.

MARSHALL TURNS BACK

Ends First Half of 7,000-Mile Trip—Attacks T. R. and Taft

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 25.—Governor Marshall, of Indiana, started tonight to return eastward at the end of the first half of his seven thousand-mile campaign trip from Chicago to the Pacific coast States.

After addressing a large audience in the Seattle Colisieum late this evening, Governor Marshall spoke tonight at Everett and then took a train for Spokane, where he is scheduled to speak tomorrow.

In his speeches today Governor Marshall emphasized his argument calling on the people to take back into their hands control of governmental affairs.

Also he attacked Colonel Roosevelt and President Taft for their records on the trust question and advocated a lower tariff as the best means of handling trusts.

"It is not money that I am fighting, but the sense of irresponsibility of the dollars," said the Governor at Centralia, Wash., "and in this connection I want you to remember that Colonel Roosevelt, who some one has called a 'trust buster,' really is a trust incubator with an addled egg in the nine. There is where the dollar is getting its irresponsibility."

At Tacoma, where he spoke to a large crowd, Governor Marshall said: "I object to your idea that this government depends upon the life, the patriotism or the effort of any individual leader. Good government or bad government simply goes back to the people that make up the citizenship of this country. This government doesn't rest on the shoulders of its officials, but on the individual shoulders of 90,000,000 citizens. When you have effectively taught this great lesson to the populace of this country you will protect the lives of your public servants from such an attack as occurred recently at Milwaukee."

WILL RECESS TODAY

Beveridge and Starr Scheduled to Appear Before Committee

Washington, Oct. 25.Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, and Henry C. Starr, are scheduled to appear before the Senate Campaign Contributions Committee tomorrow morning. It is expected that their examination will conclude the hearings of the committee until after the election.

H. C. Pettit, the only witness examined today, corroborated the story of the $57,500 fund returned those who contributed it by Mr. Beveridge in the 1904 campaign.

To thin and weak J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., have a word to say. Let them use Samose, the wonderful flesh-forming food, that is now so popular, and they will soon be plump and rosy.

Samose is not an ordinary medicine; it is a flesh-forming food that is adapted to the most delicate. Its tonic effect gives strength and health so that after its use for a short time, all the flesh and fat producing elements in the food will be easily assimilated and retained by the body.

The large sale Druggist J. Hicks Bunting has had on Samose since he first introduced it in Wilmington and the wonderful results following its use has made him such an enthusiastic believer in its great merits, that he gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose does not make thin people fat and restore strength and health.

When a gain in weight is noticed after Samose has been used for a week or ten days, and health has improved, and you notice yourself growing stronger, you certainly should feel more than satisfied with what you have received from the small cost of 50c.

SIMMONS AT GREENSBORO.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 25.—United States Senator Simmons made his appeal to an audience here last night that almost if not entirely taxed the capacity of the Grand Opera House. The Senator spoke for almost three hours, but during that time he was listened to with the closest attention. He declared that in voting on measures in the Senate as he has he voted in the interest of the farmer; that "If you will put the things the farmer buys on the free list I will be willing to put the things he sells on the free list, but I am never willing to put the things he makes on the free list and the things he buys are on the Payne-Aldrich tariff duty list."

The Senator further declares that so long as he was in the Senate whoever kicks the farmers' dog around was going to get a kick from him. In one sentence of his speech Senator Simmons made bold claims to return to the Senate when he said: "In the 12 years I have been in the Senate I have brought to North Carolina for the development of her natural resources enough money to pay my salary as Senator for 500 years." Referring to the farmer again Senator Simmons said: "I will never consent to put farm crops on the free list and vote for a protective tariff on tools with which he works his crops." Many citizens of Greensboro and this section were on the stage last night to hear the Senator and his reception here was all that his friends say they could have desired.

WILSON SPEAKS MONDAY

Resumes Campaign In View of Roosevelt's Certain Recovery

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 25.—Governor Woodrow Wilson will resume next Monday in Philadelphia his speaking campaign which was interrupted when Colonel Roosevelt was shot.

The Governor said today that the Colonel's recovery seemed so certain that he was now arranging dates for the remainder of the campaign.

$3.50 Recipe Free, For Weak Men.

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have it Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4163 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain, ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $3.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.

Saturday, October 26, 1912.

Says a contemporary: "The Republican party is on trial for its life." The case will end next Tuesday week with a verdict of guilty.

There is a proposition to divide Georgia into two States, but the trouble would be which one would have to be saddled with Tom Watson.

Senator LaFollette has come to the conclusion that as he is not a candidate for President there is no need of his going to the polls to vote for any of the other candidates.

The easy collapse of the revolutionary undertaking of Gen. Felix Diaz shows that if the police had done their duty the army would not have been scared by what appeared to be a fight to the finish.

A man at Orange, N. J., committed suicide and left a note saying that the cause of his self-destruction was "horses and women." Probably he didn't have the money to hire all the horses he wanted.

If a man cannot get a square deal in the Democratic party, where can he get it in these degenerate times when personalities instead of issues become the most conspicuous part of a campaign?

The Hon. William Jennings Bryan thinks it quite likely that the Bull Moose mistook the voice of Perkins for the call of the Lord. Anyhow, Perkins seems to be on the job and is the first to go to Oyster Bay to arrange for more fighting at Armageddon.

The Bull Moose will resume hostilities the coming week. He asked for no quarter, and that means that he does not expect to give any to those who tried to sympathie with him. When the colonel gets upon his feet again it means more trouble at Armageddon.

The always contentious Norfolk Virginian-Pilot remarks: "The Wilmington Star insists that a woman is only as old as she pretends to be, but we are fairly certain that some of them are not that young." It's mighty mean, though, not to give them the benefit of their pretensions.

According to a pre-election canvass, the New York State Republican committee declares that Taft will carry the State by a small plurality, and that Wilson will come second, with Roosevelt "a bad third." The Republicans are dying right in the ditch under the inspiration of optimism.

While everybody sympathizes with Col. Roosevelt for getting shot, President Taft had to worry along with the Mexican trouble, the Nicaraguan insurrection, the Cuban question, the war in the Balkans, the Roosevelt insurrection, and the Wilson march on the White House.

Miss Maude Malone, a suffragette who almost caused a riot when Woodrow Wilson spoke in New York a few days ago, was tried by a judge who called her a "scatter-brained, loose-tongued, ill-mannered virago." After that, a man who would marry Miss Maude would no doubt turn out to be "a hero in the strife."

Before Col. Roosevelt forgets it, he ought to denounce the trusts which subscribed to his campaign fund in 1904. His silence since the disclosures under sworn testimony cannot be attributed to his lack of personal knowledge. Let him speak out on the sworn facts. Taft also is silent about trust contributions to campaign subscriptions. Both are like the fellow who went to a show on a free ticket and had to remain silent while everybody else guyed the mighty poor performance.

OBJECTIONABLE ADVERTISING

There was presented at The Star office yesterday for insertion as an advertisement by one of the managers for one of the Senatorial candidates in North Carolina an advertisement to be run until after the election, that illustrates to what length some of the friends of the aspirants for Mr. Simmons' seat will go, regardless of the welfare of their party, which seems to be a secondary consideration just at this time in the mad scramble for office.

The advertisement referred to was to be run in twelve-inch display, presenting a ring, inside of which were given first the name of Taft; then the present Democratic U. S. Senator from this State; next the member of the State Democratic Executive Committee from the Sixth Congressional district, next the member of State Democratic Advisory Committee from this district, and lastly the name of the chairman of the New Hanover County Democratic Executive Committee, just outside this ring being the names of the National candidate for Presidential honors, the Hon. Woodrow Wilson, a certain one of the candidates for the United States Senate to succeed Mr. Simmons and Hon. Locke Craig, Democratic candidate for Governor of North Carolina, over the "lay-out" in the ring being the words, "'Rouse Mitt 'Em," a weak inference being drawn that these men in the circle should be thrown out and the others admitted.

We quite agree with the author of the advertisement as to Mr. Taft and the admission of certain others outside the ring, but we are emphatically of the opinion that this is no time for any of the Democratic candidates for the United States Senate, through their local managers, or otherwise, to attack the Democratic party organization, county, State or Nationally. When the party is now drawn up in battle array before a common enemy, with the election less than two weeks away, and both sides putting forth every effort to triumph in the county, State and Nation, it comes with very poor grace from any of the Senatorial candidates to attack their party or party representatives and to attempt to discredit them by lining them up with Taft or any other objectionable person of the opposite political faith. The member of the State Democratic Executive Committee recently contributed $100 to help elect Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States; two others inside the ring of invidious comparison contributed each $10 and have been working with might and main to secure vote of 3,000 for the Democratic ticket in New Hanover on November 5th and yet they are subject to such an attack from "inside" their party.

To what lengths will this Senatorial race in the end carry some of our aspiring friends for personal preferment? The advertisement was refused at a financial loss to the paper. We repeat, this is no time to subordinate the party, county, State and Nationally, to a puny race between equally good men for a seat in the United States Senate.

FREE TRADE ALARMISTS.

The New York Tribune (Rep.) is very much alarmed lest the election of Woodrow Wilson to the Presidency means free trade. Governor Wilson has declared time and again that the Democratic party is not a free trade party and never was, but the Tribune is in holy horror for fear that if a Democratic Senate and House were elected, the Democratic President would not dare to oppose the radical will of his Congress. Of course, Big Business does not want either a Democratic President or a Democratic Congress, so it is not necessary to use any argument on "the interests", but it is the voters who should be warned against the alarms sounded by Republican papers and spielers.

The Tribune is quite sure that the Baltimore platform means free trade and that "the capture of Congress and the Presidency by a party which has declared all protective duties to be unconstitutional could but upset industry, which has long been subjected to the protective basis, depress trade and check public confidence." However, our alarmed Republican contemporary fails to take note of the sane Democratic proposition that in order not to revolutionize our industrial system, the Baltimore platform proposes "gradually" to reduce the tariff to a strictly revenue basis.

The Tribune ought to catch on to the fact that there is nothing wild and woolly in the Baltimore platform. It promises sane reduction, for the Democrats who were on the job at Baltimore know as well as the Tribune that radical revision of the tariff would mean a total disorganization and paralysis of the industries of the country. The Tribune should appreciate the statesmanship displayed in the Baltimore platform for a "gradual" reduction of the tariff to a revenue basis.

The Tribune has no reason to express the fear that "the new administration would be one of radical experiments, and investors and business men would all have to sit tight until the scope of its destructive activities had become clear."

If Woodrow Wilson is on the job there will be no "destructive activities" and he will be backed by the Baltimore platform which promises "gradual" reduction of the burdens of the people without radically affecting the interests of the industries.

The more we know about Woodrow Wilson the more we observe that this country needs just such a man for President. The Baltimore platform promises justice to the people, but it promises it to be "gradual" and that is all that Big Business ought to expect. Relief to the people will come all but too "gradually," so that there need be no alarm that Big Business will be put on the hog so as you'll notice it.

SLAVES OF MONOPOLY

Monopolies created by legislation at the expense of the people are a system of slavery of a certain kind. Where the people are taxed for the benefit of trusts and corporations having a monopoly, it makes the people their subjects just as much as are the people upon whom Turkey levies tribute without giving them a share in her government.

The Republican party permits corporations to levy tribute upon the people without giving the people representation in the trusts and combines who exploit them. That is a kind of taxation without representation that was never dreamed of when the American colonists were willing to fight as a way of denying that right to the mother country.

This campaign, headed by Woodrow Wilson, is a peaceable revolution for liberty. It depends upon the people to free themselves from the tyranny of the protectionists. The Republican government is with the protectionists, hence we are compelled to have a new kind of government to throw off the yoke. Governor Wilson said in one of his recent speeches:

"Liberty has never come from the government. Liberty has always come from the subjects of it. The history of liberty is a history of resistance. Do people dream that men are bred great enough now to be a Providence over the people over whom they preside?"

The situation that now exists in Washington has been described by Gov. Wilson in these words:

"For the government of the United States at present is a mere foster-child of the special interests. It is not allowed to have a will of its own. It is told at every move, 'Don't do that; you will interfere with our prosperity.' When we ask, 'Where is our prosperity lodged?' a certain group of gentlemen say, 'With us.'"

Woodrow Wilson talks like a modern Thomas Jefferson. Even our government is not free. It is dominated by the privilege crowd, and with a slavish government at Washington, it naturally consents for the protectionists to make the people contribute to their wealth. When will free Americans put a stop to that? When?

SCRATCHERS RECOGNIZED

Voters who "scratch" the Democratic ticket will be qualified to vote in the Democratic primary for the nomination of a candidate for the United States Senate, provided that they do not scratch in order to vote for the nominee of any other party.

Several weeks ago the State Democratic committee decided that those entitled to take part in the nomination of a Senator must vote the Democratic ticket from President to constable. That was regarded as exceedingly rigid, and so it was. It was hard on the scratchers and it was not exactly satisfactory to the three candidates for the Senatorial nomination. That signifies that all of them have friends who are scratchers in one way or another, and so some concession had to be made to those who do not vote the straight Democratic ticket.

The committee has acted liberally and broadly about it, and everybody ought to be satisfied. It must be admitted that "scratchers" have some rights that are bound to be respected, and so far as scratching is concerned all the Senatorial candidates are in the same boat. They all ought to be satisfied.

Parties have to be liberal if they hope to challenge the support of the people. A bigoted, narrow party would shrivel up to a one-idea'd faction. Burke, the great English statesman, declared that no reform or progress was ever accomplished without compromise, and we guess Burke was just about right.

Some of us who vote straight have got "to give and take" with the scratchers. That means compromise, which Burke regarded as a part of statesmanship, and we are satisfied that Burke knew more in his day than most of the narrow-gauged individuals who are today so uncompromising that they think they know it all and want to have everything their own way.

"Thou shalt not steal" was put forth by the Progressive party as one of its maxims, but it took the Supreme Court of Nebraska to keep them from stealing the Republican machinery for the nomination of Roosevelt electors. On Wednesday the Supreme Court decided that the Roosevelt electors had no legal or moral right to appear on the Republican ballot, and that only the Taft electors were entitled to recognition as the nominees of the Republican party. The court thus prevents the Progressives from stealing.

Who will get the hysterical vote of the country?

ROYAL
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Cooking is a matter which concerns the whole family, and under modern methods and conveniences it is made so attractive the whole family is becoming interested, if not taking part in it.

"These biscuits are delicious; this cake is excellent," says the father. "I made them," says the daughter, and both father and daughter beam with pleasure.

It is a crime, with our modern agencies, helps and facilities, to have soggy biscuit, or wooden cake, or leaden pastry.

Royal Baking Powder has made home baking a success, a pleasure and a profit, and the best cooking today the world over is done with its aid.

Republican prosperity was revealed in a divorce case in New York last Wednesday. The judge ordered the husband to pay his wife $100 a week alimony and taxed him with $800 for attorneys' fees. It turned out that the fellow worked for Spencer Trask & Co., bankers, for $5 a week. "Everybody's working" for any old thing they can get, while those who are prosperous have an idea that everybody else is.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The more the people of North Carolina learn of Locke Craig the more they like him. And the same is true of Woodrow Wilson. It is going to be a great majority for both on November fifth. The news is that many in North Carolina who have heretofore voted the Republican ticket will this year vote for Woodrow Wilson and Locke Craig. And they will be doing the right thing—Raleigh News and Observer.

"The pressure on our North Carolina blanket and gingham mills, as well as at our Zion City lace and lace curtain factories," says President Shedd, of Marshall Field & Co., to The World's Work, "has been very great and has necessitated the running of some of our plants in double shifts." The returned prosperity now gaining momentum every day undoubtedly assures the textile industry one of the best periods it ever had.—Charlotte Observer.

In these last days of the campaign intelligent citizens should pay no heed to rumors and reports that may be circulated for the benefit of any candidate running for office. The voter may rest assured that if there had been any scandals to air, they would have been liberated many weeks ago. The time ought to come when cowardly slanders will be impossible in the last days of a campaign, and it is the duty of every honest man to hasten that day.—Raleigh Times.

If the Georgia law requiring inspection of all gasoline sold in the State and exacting a fee of one-half a cent per gallon is to blame for another cent being tacked on to the selling price, what caused the recent advance of five cents per gallon in all the States? The new law appears to have given the manufacturers an excuse for taxing the customer another half cent for the State and charging him 100 per cent. for the trouble. The increased price does not affect automobile owners alone. There are many industries which were induced to use gasoline as a motive power because it was cheap, and the big advance hits them hard.—Savannah News.

Fifty articles purchased in London cheaper than they can be bought in New York are to be added to the tariff exhibit in Manhattan. To leave no room for question, an agent was sent to London to make the purchases, and in some cases "the cost of the things bought in New York, of the same size, quality and brand, and those bought in London show an excess charge of almost 100 per cent." This 100 per cent profit goes to the favored manufacturer and is paid out of the pockets of the helpless consumer. Isn't it about time to reduce the amount of daily tribute which the average American is called upon to pay to our highly protected industries? They could still make large profits on a lower tariff.—Baltimore Sun.

THAT TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Just listen! while I tell to you
A story ab-so-lute-ly true.
It is about the act of giving
In connection with the cost of living.
And at the same time tell you why
The cost of living is so high.
It's clear to those who read the papers
And keep in touch with al the capers,
Of those that stand with the other crew—
Like Payne, Aldrich and Pettigrew.
But all the blame's not on these three,
There's J. P. M.-Geo. W. P.
Another one I will not name,
I'll say he brought the Steel Trust fame.
And yet the half has not been told.
I haven't mentioned Archibald.
There's Andrew too, and John D. R.
And scores of others on a par,
All in the same old boat you know,
But not the one which we (Woodrow) would row.
Now what's the use for me to tell,
Each of us know, and know quite well,
That men like these are not for us,
For they are lined up with the Trust.
But I know it is a shame,
But let's get right, who is to blame?
There's lots of things that I could quote
You think on it, then cast your vote.
And now let's take the other side,
To compare it makes you swell with pride.
They call us this, they call us that
We call ourselves a Democrat.
Our party's promise could not be fairer,
For look who is our standard bearer.
I tell you Wilson's bound to win,
The people are going to put him in.
To do this stunt we need some "dough"
I think I've mentioned this before.
Ten thousand dollars is our share,
Come on and help the burden bear.
Then when election's o'er you'll find
That you will have that peace of mind,
And with your lot you'll be content,
And say that money was well spent.

TRIAL OF ALLEGED VAGRANTS

Cases Against Women of the Underworld Taken Up In Recorder's Court Yesterday — Further Hearing This Morning

The Recorder's court was engaged for two hours and a half yesterday in the hearing of cases charging women of the underworld with vagrancy by reason of keeping a disodrely house. In the one case tried the defendant, Mattie Allen, was found guilty, but judgment in this case as well as in a former case where a submission was entered was left open until this morning, when the trial of cases against other defendants will be entered into. Seven of the defendants entered a plea of guilty yesterday and threw themselves on the mercy of the court, stating that they desired to lead better lives. The court extended them a helping hand in their desire to change their manner of living, a nol pros with leave being taken by the prosecuting attorney.

The women were arrested some two weeks ago and the trial of the cases were continued two or three times, finally being set for 12 o'clock yesterday. Most of the women have been up on similar charges twice before in the last three months. In the first cases prayer for judgment was contiued for 30 days upon payment of the costs. Along about the end of the 30 days the women were again arrested and pending some hoped for solution of the social evil the former judgment was continued and an order made that the defendants be notified when prayer for final judgment would be made. Notice was given some days ago by Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau that he would pray judgment in the old cases yesterday. The case against Mattie Allen was the only one reached, but others will be taken up this morning.

There were only two witnesses against Mattie Allen in the case heard yesterday. They were Officer E. L. Smith, who for two or three years has been making monthly visits to the district in which the defendant lives for the purpose of securing, as required by law, a list of the keepers and inmates of the bawdy houses, and Plainclothesman Frank George. The former testified that when he went to Mattie Allen's home for a list of the owner and inmates a few weeks ago, as he had been doing every month, she told him that she was the landlady and gave the name of one inmate. Officer George testified to disorder at and around the house and of having arrested several drunken men in front of the place either on the porch or sidewalk. He gave a graphic description of some of the scenes witnessed by him at this particular house while going through the district on his regular nightly visits.

It was solely upon the evidence of these two officers that Assistant City Attorney Peschau relied to prove the charge and he stated in addressing the court that he could not imagine a stronger case than the admission of the defendant to Officer Smith that she was conducting a place of the character charged and the evidence of Officer George of the disorder about the place. Counsel for the defense took a contrary view and argued that the evidence produced was insufficient to substantiate the charge. Appearing for the defendant are Kellum & Loughlin, A. G. Ricaud, L. Clayton Grant and Walter P. Gafford, Esqs. Messrs. Gafford, Ricaud Grant and Kellum addressed the court in the order named.

The Recorder took the same view as that of the prosecuting attorney and announced that he would find the defendant guilty. The prosecuting attorney asked that judgment in this case be withheld for the present, but prayed judgment in a former case against the defendant. In the old case the defendant submitted to a charge of keeping a bawdy and disorderly house. Counsel for the defense were heard in opposition to the motion of the prosecuting attorney. Mr. Kellum asked for the record book, the entry in which showed that on some date in August Mattie Allen entered a plea of submission and prayer for judgment was continued for 30 days upon payment of the costs. A further entry was to the effect that the prayer for judgment had been further continued and the defendants were to be notified. Mr. Kellum said that the defendants were under the impression, although given no such assurance by word of mouth, that when the first entry was made that at the end of 30 days that would be the end of the cases. He said that they were not even recognized to return to court at any future date. He stated further that since that time the State has caused to be issued two more warrants against the defendant and in one case she had been convicted. He did not think it legally nor morally right for the State to pray for judgment in the old case. He asked to be permitted to file in writing the reasons why judgment should not be prayed. This was allowed and this statement will be filed this morning, after which the Recorder will announce his decision.

Mr. Ricaud said that he was not prepared to say that the State has been precluded legally from a prayer for judgment in the old case, but morally the original entry should be the one to stand.

Mr. Peschau said that there was no intimation of the court that the time the entry was made that judgment would not be prayed any time later; that when the defendants were indicted again a few weeks later the cases were continued under the original entry pending an investigation looking to a solution of the social evil. It was the understanding that this disposition was to be made of the cases and that the defendants were to be notified. He said that he would not presume to even intimate what the Recorder ought to do in the cases, but that he certainly ought to make a difference in the judgment between the keeper and inmate of a house.

When the Recorder had announced that judgment in the Allen case would be reserved until this morning there was a brief intermission to allow counsel to decide whether they were ready to proceed with the trial of the [illegible] cases. Then Mr. Peschau said that word had been sent to him by seven of the defendants by their counsel that they desired to throw themselves upon the mercy of the court, leave the district and lead better lives. He recommended that if the defendants desired to reform that a nol pros should be taken, saying that he thought the court could not do better than to lend encouragement to them if they really desired to lead better lives. The names of the seven women are Nellie Russell, Nellie Berry, Maud Johnson, Bessie Brooks, Myrtle Page, Ruth Alliston, Eva Davis. Walter P. Gafford, Esq., of counsel for the defendants, said that they had not told him anything about their decision to reform, but they wanted to leave the district and live in separate houses and naturally they would lead better lives than at present. Upon the suggestion of Mr. Peschau the women, who had been in an ante room, came in the court room. What the attorneys had said in their absence was repeated to the court in their presence. In announcing that he allow a nol pros with leave in the cases the Recorder addressed a few remarks to the women. He told them that if they did not carry out their agreement to live better lives and continued to violate the law they would be brought into court every month. He expressed the hope that they would hereafter live so that no charge could be brought against them.

Mr. Gafford asked the court if he would give the women to understand that so long as they lived in separate houses, that is, one in each house, that they would not be guilty of violating the law. The Recorder replied that he took it that the officers would not have the right to bring the matter to his attention under these circumstances so long as the women behaved themselves. It was decided to give the women until next Friday to change their place of living. It was stated that immediately after court adjourned two or three of the seven defendants said they expected to leave Wilmington as early as Monday of next week.

COMING IN ALL ITS ENTIRETY

Sparks World's Famous Show to Visit Wilmington One Day

Four hundred people employed and carrying over two hundred foreign and domestic animals, is the statement made by Mr. F. M. Heaton, agent for the Sparks shows, who was in town Thursday making arrangements for the appearance of this big circus here on November 6th.

The strange colony of people, handsome horses, rare wild animals and the golden caravans are scheduled to arrive here during the early hours of the morning of the above date in their own special trains of specially built railway cars from Clarkton, where they will exhibit the day before.

Circus day will begin with a big street parade at 12 o'clock, noon, and two performances will be given, the first starting at 2 o'clock and the other at 8 o'clock. It is said that the Sparks shows have $75,000 tied up in chariots, tableauxs, floats, musical vehicles, fanciful and historic costumes, and expensive and odd things of distinctive parade use.

The grounds at Fourth and Castle streets have been arranged for by the agent and a number of our merchants have received contracts to furnish immense quantities of feed stuff for both man and beast, to be delivered on the show grounds early in the morning of show day.

The Sparks shows have improved and grown remarkably during the last few years, and to those of us who remember its former visits comes the thought that it was always a clean, moral and entertaining show, and one we never hesitated in having our families visit. It is said that the show still retains these features that made it such a welcome visitor in the years gone by, and that its methods of doing business with the public are still of that same high order.

FUNERAL OF MRS. FORBES.

Services Held Thursday Afternoon at Late Home at Washington.

Mention was made in The Star Thursday morning of the death of Mrs. William Catherine Forbes, of Washington, N. C., mother of Mrs. E. P. Dixon, of this city. Thursday's Washington News contained the following further facts relative of the passing of Mrs. Forbes:

"After a lingering illness and surrounded by loved ones and friends, Mrs. William Catherine Forbes, relict of the late Samuel H. Forbes, passed peacefully away yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Z. M. Potts, on Bonner street. Mrs. Forbes enjoyed the esteem and confidence of her neighbors and friends for a number of years and her death is mourned by a large number. She was a woman of the highest ideals and her home and fireside was her castle; here she shone forth as nowhere else. She was not only devoted to those nearest and dearest but as long as she was permitted to do so she took an active part in all works that had for their aim sobriety and morality. Mrs. Forbes was a living epistle known and read by all men. Truly she did what she could for not only her immediate family, but the community.

"The deceased leaves to mourn their loss four children: Mrs. Z. M. Potts, Mr. Samuel Forbes, Mrs. J. S. Forbes and Mrs. Sallie B. Dixon, of Wilmington, N. C.

"The funeral of this good woman took place from the residence of Mr. Z. M. Potts this afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. B. Searight, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery. Peace to her ashes."

BASKETBALL AT THE BRIGADE

Several Fine Games Played at the Armory Last Night and Witnessed by a Large Crowd, Who Enjoyed the Sport.

Last night the secnd games in the Friday Night League of the Boys' Brigade were played before a crowd which taxed the capacity of the gallery to its utmost limit and the enthusiasm was always at fever pitch, cheer after cheer following in quick succession as some good play would be pulled off by first one side then the other, and regardless of the team which would gain a point or make a good play it was cheered, for the crowd was evenly divided in its sympathy so that all the teams were encouraged throughout the game to do its best and each responded to the limit of its ability, some of the fastest basketball ever seen in the Brigade gymnasium being the result.

The first game was between Company A and the Cardinals, another team composed of Brigade men, and after 30 minutes of hard playing on the part of both teams the final score stood 23 to 14 in favor of the Cardinals, the team of Company A receiving its second defeat in two weeks. The playing and goal shooting of H. Huhn for the Cardinals and the fast work of Duls for Company A were the features of this game. Huhn secured 15 of the 23 points scored by the Cardinals.

The second game was between the Y. M. C. A. Juniors and Company B, two teams which have striven for supremacy for three years and nothing decisive has ever been done, as first one team would win and then the other until it is generally conceded that each is equal to the other. This was a very fast game, but not up to the standard in team work, which is usually shown by these teams, but what it lacked in team work was made up for in some individual work, as each individual did good work from start to finish. The score was never decided until the last blow of the whistle, for whenever one side would get the lead the other side would immediately tie it or better it. In the first half the Juniors led their rivals by four points, the score at the end of the half being 10 to 6 in their favor. In the second half the Brigade boys overtook them and at the end of the half led by the close margin of two points, the final score being 18 to 16 in favor of Company B. This game kept the spectators in a constant cheer throughout and provided some good sport which is hard to beat.

The third game, between the Y. M. C. A. Seniors and the Eagles, was a walk-over for the Seniors as they won at will. Their team has been greatly strengthened by the addition of Straus and Woollcott and by the absence of the large number of fouls committed last week. The team played a fast, clean game, which was characterized by splendid team work by every member of the team, and this materially aided in their success. The Eagles were minus Capt. Burnett and C. Burnett, who were replaced by Kerman and K. Smith. Frank Brittain was the bright particular star of this game for the Eagles and kept the spectators in a constant roar of laughter by his efforts to throw goals over Starrett. He did not succeed, but he made things lively for everybody who came within reach and so did his part with a whole heart and a determination to win if possible and if not possible to win anyhow. He is now hoping for the next opportunity. This is his only ambition. Just another chance. However, this team will round into playing form before the season has gone much longer, when it will be in condition to give a good account of itself. The final score was 16 to 0 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. Seniors.

The Cardinals and Company B team are now tie for first place. The Y. M. C. A. Seniors and Juniors tie for second place and Company A and the Eagles tie for last place. The games next Friday night will be between the Y. M. C. A. Juniors and Seniors; Company B and the Cardinals, and Company A and the Eagles.

INSPECTED NEW APPARATUS.

Officials From Tarboro Spent Yesterday Afternoon Here.

The Mayor, several members of the Board of Aldermen and the Chief of the fire department of Tarboro spent yesterday afternoon in the city, coming here especially to inspect the two motor-driven cominbation hose and chemical wagons recently purchased by the city from the American LaFrance Company. They had just visited Durham, which has purchased the Webb car, and Florence, S. C., which has bought the Seagrave car. The visitors were shown every courtesy by Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, and Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the fire department. After inspecting the fire apparatus they inspected the fire alarm system and the police call system that is being installed. They were very favorably impressed with the American-LaFrance apparatus and will probably select this make over the others.

The visitors also visited the health department, where Councilman Moore and Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, acquainted them with the work that is being done to make Wilmington a healthier and more sanitary city. They were very much impressed with the work that has been done and complimented the department upon the fine system in the work, method of gathering of data, filing of records, etc.

Saved By His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsilitis, hemorrhages. COMPARISON OF TAXABLES

Net Gain of Over Half Million In Assessed Values Over 1911—Revenue Runs Close With Budget for Fiscal Year

Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, yesterday issued a statement showing the comparison of taxable values for the years 1911 and 1912 and copies were furnished members of the Council. The report shows a gain in every item except in that of money and solvent credits, which shows a considerable loss. The statement follows:

Real estate—1911, $8,091,504; 1912, $8,851,234; gain, $139,730.

Money and solvent credits—1911, $778,263; 1912, $554,695; loss, $223,558.

Stock in trade—1911, $979,390; 1912, $1,109,491; gain, $130,101.

Corporation and bank stock—1911, $1,929,038; 1912, $2,188,899; gain, $259,261.

The totals show taxables in 1911 of $12,322,610, in 1912, of $12,911,110, a net gain of $588,500.

The net gain in assessed revenue is $65,757.59. The assessed revenue for the fiscal year, including polls, is shown to be $232,459.52.

The budget for the fiscal year as arranged calls for $265,000, in round numbers, and this amount will be exceeded by at least $5,000. It is believed that the special license tax will just about make up the difference between the assessed revenue and the budget for the year.

The thanks are extended to the Greeks of Wilmington, Goldsboro and Newbern for the $600 that Mr. Vafiadi had cabled to Her Highness for the wounded soldiers of Greece. This sum was part of the $1,100 collected at the meeting of Greek citizens last Sunday.

BEST $5 HE EVER SPENT.

Bristol, Pa., Man Says so in This Letter.

Months of suffering and anxiety over his condition caused Mr. A. L. Kennedy, of Bristol, Pa., to write this letter. He says: "Grippe and a bad cough caused me much suffering and worry for five long months, but that is all over now for I have taken Vinol and am perfectly well. I took five bottles and it was the best five dollars I ever spent."

In health one cannot realize how depressed a person may become after trying one remedy after another for such a condition as Mr. Kennedy was in, without benefit, or what a relief it is to find help and be restored to health and strength.

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative element of cods' livers without the greasy oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient in overcoming chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis at the same time building up the weakened run-down system.

LUMBERMEN IN CHARLESTON.

Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, of Wilmington, Toastmaster at Banquet.

The semi-annual meeting of North Carolina Pine Association, which convened in Charleston, S. C., Thursday, and continued through yesterday, was attended by about 70 of the most prominent lumbermen of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. It was one of the best meetings the organiation has ever held and a number of matters of special interest to the lumbermen were discussed at the several sessions.

Thursday night at St. John Hotel, the 24th annual banquet was held. It was a coincidence that the banquet was held on the 24th day of the month. Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, of this city, editor of the Southern Lumber Journal, presided as toastmaster and filled the office with grace and dignity.

In its report of the first day's proceedings, the Charleston News and Courier yesterday morning, contained the following of interest here: "One of the most popular of those who attended the meeting was Z. W. Whitehead, editor of the Southern Lumber Journal, of Wilmington, who knew and was known by everybody."

PROVIDE SEPARATE BOOTHS.

Senatorial Primary Will Not be Under Australian Ballot Law.

As the Senatorial primary to be held on November 5th is not a legalized primary and is not subject to the provisions of the Australian ballot law under which all elections and county primaries in New Hanover are held, not only will separate books and pollholders be provided, but the polls cannot be held at the same place as the polls for the general election, which will be held strictly according to the Australian ballot law. However, the county Democratic Executive Committee has selected polling places for the primary as near the polling places of the general election as possible, so the voter will be put to but little inconvenience.

The point has been made by some that no challenges in the primary can very well be made in this county for failure to vote in the general election for only nominees of the Democratic party because of the operation of the Australian ballot law. It has been pointed out that no one has the right to force a man to tell for whom he voted in the general election.

POPULAR BLADEN GROOM RETURNS WITH HIS BRIDE.

Bladenboro, N. C., Oct. 25.—To the delight of their many friends, Mr. H. C. Bridger, Jr., and bride, who was Miss Myrtle MacRae, one of the most charming young women of Wadesboro, N. C., returned this morning from an extended bridal tour of the Northern cities and will make their home for a few days with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bridger, after which they will keep house.

The marriage was solemnized at 6 o'clock last Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church at Wadesboro, the house of worship being beautifully decorated with smilax, palms and chrysanthemums, the color scheme being pink and white.

As Miss Jessie Moore softly played Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Mattie Bruton down the left aisle; Mr. R. L. Bridger, Jr., down the right aisle, crossing in front of the altar and taking their positions; Miss Ruth McRae and Mr. Charlie O. Bridger. The ushers were Mr. Frank Dunlap and Dr. R. C. Sadler, of Bladenboro. Then came the maid of honor down the middle aisle, closely followed by the groom and his best man; they were met in front of the altar by the bride and her father, who gave her away.

During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. Bruce Doyle, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Nevin's Venetian Love song was softly played by Miss Jessie Moore.

The bride was attired in a becoming traveling suit, with gloves and hat to match and carried brides roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was dressed in chiffon over pink messaline and carried pink and white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore dressed in white batiste with shadowed lace over pink messaline and carried pink chrysanthemums. The groom and groomsmen wore conventional black.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom left for Washington and other Northern points on their bridal tour.

One Cause of Bad Complexion—the Cure

(From Family Physician.)

"Look at a section of skin under the microscope and you will readily understand why cosmetics generally injure the complexion," says Dr. H. Robert Mackenzie. "The skin, smooth as it looks to the naked eye, under the glass exhibits a lacework of tiny holes, mouths of myriads of little glands. To keep the skin healthy these holes must be unobstructed, that the perspiration and natural oil can have free outlet. Should the glands be blocked up with irritating, gritty particles, a common result of using powders and creams, nature retaliates by causing sallowness, roughness, blotches or pimples.

"As a substitute for all cosmetics I recommend ordinary mercolized wax. It not only does what the various face preparations are supposed to accomplish, but its peculiar absorbent action frees the pores from the daily accumulation of impurities, also absorbing the devitalized particles of surface skin. This produces a natural, healthy, youthful complexion. One ounce of this wax suffices to rejuvenate the poorest complexion. It is put on nightly like cold cream and washed off mornings."

..Theatrical..

Miss Della Clarke, the well known actress, presented her "Introduce Me," at the Academy of Music last night to a fair-sized and well pleased audience. The crowd would doubtless have been larger but for the fact that two other shows are appearing here during the next day or two. "Introduce Me" is a very clever four-act comedy with many amusing situations.

The Attraction Today

That oft-repeated question, "Alma, Where Do You Live?" is to be answered at the Academy today, at matinee and night, when Joseph M. Weber's production of the Americanized version of this popular musical farce is to be seen.

This play had a season's run in New York at Weber's Theatre, and was originally a French play by Paul Herve and Jean Briquet, was translated into German and in this language was presented at Adolph Phillip's Theatre in the metropolis where it received much unfavorable criticism on account of its suggestiveness. Joseph M. Weber, its present producer, witnessed it and seeing possibilities for it in English had it Americanized by George V. Hobart, who it is said did his work very cleverly, omitting the salaciousness, but retaining all the humor of the piece, which, together with the attractive music, has made it one of the most enjoyable entertainments of its kind now before the public.

The story is very brief in regard to plot but quite long as to incident. A country bumpkin named Pierre is made legatee of a large fortune on condition that he does not fall in love nor propose to a woman before he becomes of age. Should he break the provisions of this will the fortune will go to Theobald Martin and his prospective son-in-law. Only one day remains from the reading of the will to the carrying out of its provisions. Theobald and his friend engage a pretty milliner named Alma, to make love to Pierre and seek to ensnare him into a proposal. Alma really falls in love with the youth and while she makes him love her prevents him from proposing until the twenty-four hours are up. There are fourteen song hits in the play, each one of them a gem, and while of rather a higher order than usually to be found in this class of a production, they are still of that tuneful kind that sends the audience out whistling the air. Mr. Weber, with his usual regard for lavishness, has prepared a production that is fully equal to all demands and it is promised that the company will be first class in every respect. At the head of the organization is Miss Grace Drew, a charming prima donna with a voice of rare excellence. Among the others are Carlton King and Charles F. Orr, the former a popular comedian and the latter a well-known tenor.

Seats are now on sale at Plummer's for both performances.

"The Pink Lady" Monday Night

In their captivating international musical comedy hit, "The Pink Lady," which is to be seen here at the Academy of Music Monday night Klaw & Erlanger will present on this occasion the biggest and happiest presentation it has been their good fortune to introduce to American and foreign theatregoers.

It comes here as new and bright as if it had just been turned out and yet it has the force behind it of the most phenomenal runs ever registered in New York and in Europe by any musical production of recent theatrical prominence. The merry piece ran through the best part of two seasons at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, in an engagement of a year's duration and during that time it was seen by over half a million people and unanimously voted the most entertaining and well-directed and handled musical comedy ever made known on this side of the Atlantic and received an equally flattering reception at the Globe Theatre, London England, where its success was so marked that today six foreign organizations are presenting it in every civilized part of the world.

Klaw & Erlanger have fairly outdone themselves in this production for it marks the acme of their artistic achievements along these lines. A notable cast and a company of 100 people will present the work on the local stage and give a performance that will be the unqualified treat of the season. In the extraordinary cast of quality will be found John E. Young, Olga De Baugh, Harry Depp, Georgia Harvey, Charlie Stone, Tessa Costa, Alfred Derry, Elizabeth MacAfer, Abbott Worthley, Vinie Bradcomb, Dan Young, Lucie Carter, Joseph Monohan, Robt. Wilcox and nearly a score of others, not forgetting the famous pink of perfection chorus.

The seat sale as announced for is now on sale at Plummer's and mail orders are now being accepted to take care of the unusually heavy demand for this special engagement.

The company carries its own orchestra of twenty pieces.

GRACE DREW,

In "Alma, Where Do You Live," Academy Today.

At The Bijou

All aboard for a big week-end at the popular Bijou! And it is going to be the biggest artistic climax for a glorious week that this favorite amusement palace has ever "pulled off." So amusement lovers may whet up their appetites to a keen edge in expectancy of today's swell and delightful Bijou offering. The up-to-date, costly programme of films is going to be headed by one that will make a hit with all. It is, "Not on the Circus Programme." It is a real circus film and this most fascinating subject is dealt with in most interesting manner. The parade, the show grounds and the arena are all shown and a story of heart interest is unfolded.

What has been pronounced as the greatest fun picture of the year is also a twinkling star today in, "The Striped Bathing Suit." Now hubby gives his wife just such a suit, and when he sees the wearer of a striped bathing suit flirting and then kissing him, he becomes frantic and plunges in with his clothes on. Then he finds it is not his wife. It is a scream for laughter.

"The Pilgrimage" which is another one of those films with the scenes laid in dear old Germany, is also a topliner for today. It presents a stirring plot and the scenery is beautiful to an extreme.

So, verily, today is going to be one of big triumph at the popular Bijou, and the price of admission will, of course, remain the same. It is always 5 cents—afternoon or night.

Week-end at The Grand

As usual at the week-end the Grand Theatre will today offer an exceptionally large and high-class vaudeville bill and one that should challenge the patronage of all patrons of the moveys.

Mr. Leonard Chick will sing what is declared the biggest hit from coast to coast, the most phenomenal rag song ever published and Grand patrons are advised to hear it. The song is "Mocking Bird Rag" and it is said that one can honestly hear the mocking birds warbling. It will prove a winner with the big Saturday crowds at The Grand.

Not only will this song be a big number but four of the best pictures obtainable will be thrown upon the screen for the delight of the audiences. The children have been especially remembered and all the films will appeal to them, but especially for their benefit will be a "Winter Visit to Central Park, New York." This will be beautiful and spectacular and will appeal to old and young alike. Then there will be comedy and educational films, all to suit the crowds who throng the pretty little theatre. "Father's Hot Toddy" will be a scream from start to finish, while "Evening Parade and Big Gun Practice at Fort Hamilton," on the same reel, will be both entertaining and educational. "The Lass of Glouscter" is an exceedingly pretty little love story that will appeal to the romanticallly inclined and will send everybody away in a good humor and a pleasant frame of mind. Be sure to attend The Grand today and bring a friend.

—Mr. A. T. Smith, examiner for the Inter-State Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., is in the city and will remain a few days.

MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY

Tells How She Keeps Her Health — Happiness For Those Who Take Her Advice.

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house.

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has helped her.

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to your wonderful medicine." —Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 3.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for woman's ills known.

BRYAN IN MICHIGAN

Makes Dozen Speeches For Wilson—Discusses Contributions

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 25.—W. J. Bryan campaigned in behalf of Gov. Wilson's candidacy through Southeastern Michigan, today, making over a dozen speeches in as many cities and returning to Detroit tonight to address a Democratic mass meeting.

Mr. Bryan devoted considerable of his time today to a discussion of campaign contributions. He also repeatedly criticised the Presidential candidates of the opposing parties and treated the Republican National Campaign Committee humorously.

In several cities he made the announcement that the treasurer of the Democratic National Committee had informed him that the contribution of $12,500 which Cyrus H. McCormick, of Chicago, had made to Governor Wilson's campaign, had been returned. He referred to Mr. McCormick as being connected with the International Harvester Company and said that despite the fact that Mr. McCormick was a college mate and life-long friend of Governor Wilson, the contribution had been refused on the ground that the acceptance might cause political opponents to charge that the Wilson campaign had become inbedted to persons or concerns involved in government litigation. From here Mr. Bryan will go to Chicago, where he will make several speeches tomorrow.

New York, Oct. 25.—The steamship Asiatic Prince today reported the rescue of 13 men from the burning steamship Fagundes Varella, off the Brazilian coast October 7th. The ship had caught fire from chemicals in her hold. There were 40 hands, all told, aboard, 28 of whom were drowned and nine of whom were picked up by another vessel.

COTTON MADE BIG ADVANCE

The Market Was Active and More or Less Exciting—Prices Reached New High Record—Close 17 to 23 Points Higher.

New York, Oct. 25—The cotton market was active and more or less exciting during today's trading, with prices making new high records for the movement on apprehensions that the crop had been over-estimated and reports of a firm spot situation. The close was off from the best under realizing, but steady at a net advance of from 17 to 23 points. The opening was steady at a decline of 1 to 7 points in sympathy with Liverpool cables. The report of the Census Bureau, indicating 6,838,841 bales ginned to October 18th, comparing with 7,758,-621 last year, was just about in line with local expectations and seemed to exert no immediate influence. Very soon after the call, however, buying became active on reports that a local firm had issued a statement indicating that the amount of cotton ginned up to last Friday night represented no less than 55 per cent. of the crop. As this report circulated and as the market worked higher, trading became more active before the end of the first hour. Prices were from 10 to 14 points above the closing figures of last night. Heavy realizing and local selling for a turn, which seemed to be inspired by expectations of bearish week-end figures, caused a reaction of 8 or 10 points during the middle of the day, but the market firmed up again and reached the best point in the late trading, when a few months sold 24 to 25 points net higher on continued covering, bullish Southern spot news and rather small into-sight figures than looked for. Closing prices were from 3 to 6 points off from the best on most deliveries.

Cotton futures closed steady.

THE WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Prices on the Whole Have Shown But Little Strength—Fears of Frost Have Stiffened Prices—Ginning Report Bullish

New York, Oct. 25.—Prices on the whole have shown but little strength, especially at times when fears arose of frost in the Southwest. This has stiffened prices not only in New York, but also in Liverpool and New Orleans. It is said, too, that the basis for spot cotton at the South has reached the highest point of the season. The spinners have been buying futures rather more freely and as near as can be judged have also been calling for cotton on a larger scale. While there has been some increase in the movement of the crop eastward of the Mississippi, it is a fact that the receipts in that section thus far this season have not been up to expectation, so it is insisted that the crop east of the Mississippi is not only late but poor. Therefore, it has been assumed that the crop in that section was large enough, but was simply two to three weeks late. If late, however, the trend of the news has pointed to deficient yields in Alabama, Georgia and the Carolinas, particularly in Georgia and the Carolinas.

Rain has done harm. Some little stress too has been laid on the indications of a better demand from spinners. Last year the world's consumption of American cotton is said to have been 14,450,000 bales and there are those who believe that this unprecedented total will again be attained this year. On the other hand, however, there is no mistaking the fact that the exports, whether because of high rates for ocean freight room, or because of foreign stocks, visible and invisible, are distinctly larger than last year, have fallen off very noticeably. The world's takings of American cotton are smaller by an important item. Bears point to these things as an indication that Europe will not take so much American cotton as it did last year. They are strengthened in this conviction by two things: first, larger crops this year in India, Egypt, Russia and China, and second, by the outbreak of war in Eastern Europe, with the possibility of political and financial derangements involving the rest of Europe. Furthermore the crop of Texas this year is believed to be the largest on record. Therefore, they are inclined to believe that consumption will be smaller than last year and the crop somewhere in the neighborhood of 15,000,000. But the ginning report of Friday, aside from the Texas figures, was considered for the most part bullish and with predictions of frost in the Eastern belt where the ginning was generally small, caused an advance.

THE COTTON MOVEMENT.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—Secretary Hester's weekly New Orleans cotton exchange statement, issued today shows for the 25 days of October an increase in the totals over last year of 44,000, and an increase over the same period year before last of 250,000. The amount brought into sight during the past week was 675,093 bales, against 667,195 for the seven days ending this date last year, and 25 days of October it has been 2,290,938 against 2,227,060 last year. The movement since September 1 shows receipts at all United States ports of 2,844,006 against 2,888,108 last year. Overland across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers to Northern mills and Canada, 68,705 against 50,855 last year.

The total movement for the 35 days of the season from September 1 to date is 3,696,234 against 3,828,334 last year. Foreign exports for the week have been 393,-608, against 847,555 last year, making the total thus far for the season 1,869,260, against 2,039,964.

The total takings of American mills, North, South and Canada, thus far for the season, have been 737,082 against 862,785 last year.

Stocks at the seaboard and the 29 leading Southern interior centers have increased during the week 120,726 bales against an increase during the corresponding period last season of 168,252, and are now 141,256 larger than at this date in 1910.

Including stocks left over at ports and interior towns from the last crop and the number of bales brought into sight thus far from the new crop the supply to date is 4,060,967 against 4,115,508 for the same period last year.

MONEY FLURRY HURTS STOCKS

Advance in Call Loans Due to Steady Drain to the Interior Responsible for Weak Market—Foreign Markets Uneasy.

New York, Oct. 25.—A flurry in the local money market resulting mainly from the steady loss of cash to the interior during the week, was the primary cause of another weak stock market today. Call loans rose to six and a quarter per cent., with an appreciable hardening of time loans. Forecasts issued today show a drain on home institutions of about $10,000,-000, which is slightly in excess of last week's cash reserve. Unless this condition is in some way rectified tomorrow's bank statement probably will disclose a deficit.

Home conditions were in no wise assisted by conditions abroad where most markets continued to reflect a degree of uneasiness. Our issues were lower in London, the declining tendency being filled up with further sales here. Paris and Berlin were steady. Selling here was at its height shortly before noon, when leading stocks averaged declines well over a point. Liquidation was orderly, but persistent and for a while the market received scant support. In the late afternoon regardless of another advance in money to the day's highest quotation, the greater part of the early loss was regained, especially in the standard railway shares. Trading was light on the recovery, however, with considerable short covering in evidence.

Bonds were under great pressure. Total sales, par value, amounted to $7,650,000. United States bonds unchanged on call. Total sales today 702,000 shares.

REPORT ON COTTON GINNING

Amount Ginned to Oct. 18th, Was 6,-838,841 Bales, According to Census Bureau—810,780 Less Than Last Year.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cotton ginned to October 18th amounted to 6,838,841 bales, or 819,780 bales less than ginned to that date last year, when a record crop was grown, according to the Census Bureau's report today. East of the Mississippi the ginnings fell below last year's, while west of the Mississippi last year's figures were exceeded in every State. Texas ginned to that date a greater quantity by more than a half million bales than ever before. In addition to the ginning figures, the Census Bureau announced statistics estimating the world's production of cotton from the crop of 1911 at 22,297,000 bales, of 500 pounds net; the consumption for the year ending August 31st, 1912, at 20,277,000 bales and the number of active consuming cotton spindles at 140,954,000. The Census Bureau announced that 6,838,-841 bales had been ginned prior to October 18th, round bales included were 41,753. Sea Island, 15,704 bales.

The third cotton ginning report of the season, compiled from reports of Census Bureau correspondents and agents throughout the cotton belt and issued at 10 A. M. today by Director E. Dana Durand, announced that 6,-838,841 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, of the growth of 1912 had been ginned prior to October 18th. This includes the results of the most active period of the ginning season, September 25 to October 18, during which in recent years more than one-fourth of the entire crop passed through the ginners' hands.

To October 18th last year 7,758,621 bales, or 49.9 per cent. of the entire crop, had been ginned; in 1908, to that date 6,296,166 bales, or 48.1 per cent. of the crop had been ginned, and in 1906 to that date 4,931,621 bales, or 38 per cent. of the crop had been ginned.

Included in the total ginnings were 41,753 round bales, compared with 53,-858 bales last year; 66,183 bales in 1910; 88,716 bales in 1903, and 118,720 bales in 1908.

The number of Sea Island cotton bales included was 15,704, compared with 40,393 bales last year, 36,482 bales in 1909, and 32,013 bales in 1908.

both armies were enormous. A large number of Turkish officers fell.

Dispatches from Belgrade say the Bulgarian main army, commanded by the Crown Prince, is to join forces with the Servian and Bulgarian allied armies under General Stephanovitch. The troops will then be allowed a short rest before making a concentrated advance and attack on Uskup. The league of the Balkan States is based on a formal written alliance, according to a dispatch from Vienna. When this is made public, it is stated it will reveal the territorial aims of the Balkan nations. The secret treaty defines the zones of influence of the respective countries in Albania and Macedonia and provides for a common tariff and postal union between the Balkan nations.

The alliance of the Balkan kings far exceeds the status of a military combination for the immediate object in view, according to the Outlook, which claims to have special information that it is a permanent federation intended to exclude all external authority from the Balkan peninsula.

The King of Greece, according to the Outlook, will become president of the alliance on the nomination of King Nicholas of Montenegro; the religious rivalries of Balkan Christians will be ended by uniting the orthodox churches of Greec, Bulgaria, Servia and Montenegro, as in ancient times under the patriarch of Constantinople, who is head of the Greek church. The churches will retain the national rituals and languages.

Hand to Hand Encounter.

Vranya, Servia, Oct. 25.—One incident of the battle which resulted in the capture of Kumanova by the Servians indicates the desperate character of the conflict. A company of Servian infantry charged the Turks with the bayonet and the hand to hand struggle developed into individual combats in which many of the soldiers dropped rifles and drew knives with which they hacked and slashed one another.

It is reported that in the Turkish ranks the words of command given by the officers were in German.

SERVICE COMES HIGH.

Nearly $300,000,000 Required for Postal Service Next Year.

Washington, Oct. 25.—For the support of the Postal Service, the people of the United States next year will pay $283,086,760, or more than any other branch of the government service. Estimates forwarded today by the Treasury Department by Postmaster General Hitchcock, of appropriations necessary to the operation of the Postoffice Department during the fiscal year beginning July 1st, 1913, propose an increase of $12,086,909 over the appropriation of the current fiscal year.

Mr. Hitchcock is the first cabinet officer to complete his estimates which aggregate $281,791,508 for the postal service at large, exclusive of $2,014,290 for the department in Washington. Nearly $1,000,000 of the increase will be required to put into effect the postal examination legislation enacted this year. It is estimated that $7,240,000 will be needed for the parcels post service; $1,350,000 to meet the conditions required under the new eight hour law; $750,000 to provide for the reclassification of railway mail clerks; and $150,000 to establish the new village free delivery service.

Only $2,600,000 is added to current appropriations representing an increase of less than 1 per cent., which is the lowest actual rate of increase in the history of postal service.

The largest item in the estimates is $469,669,000 needed to pay the railways for carrying the mails. This is an increase of $2,015,000, of which $1,685,000 will be required to meet additional expenses resulting from the establishment of the parcels post.

For salaries in the Railway Mail Service, an estimate of $24,739,650 was submitted, or $1,296,450 more than last year. The increase is necessary to put into effect the re-classification of railway postal clerks, providing annual promotions for the thousands of employes in this branch of the service.

The amount estimated for postmasters' salaries is $30,250,000, and for assistant postmasters, postoffice clerks and other postoffice employes, $[illegible] 200,000, an increase in the two items of $630,000.

For city delivery service, $34,860,000 is asked, representing an increase of $2,107,825. Part of this increase is asked for because of the parcels post.

Mr. Hitchcock submits an estimate of $47,500,000 to maintain and extend the Rural Delivery Service, an increase of $500,000. This service now covers over a million miles of rural and city routes, carrying the mails to the homes of 20,000,000 people in the rural districts of the United States.

Adequate provision is made in the estimates to meet the normal growth of the postal savings system. There are now in operation more than 13,000 postal savings depositories and the deposits aggregating about $28,000,000.

2,000 SAW EXECUTION

Georgia Mob Burned Fence Around Gallows to See Hanging

Cumming, Ga., Oct. 25.—After a mob of citizens burned a fence erected about the gallows last night more than 2,000 persons witnessed the hanging today of Ernest Knox and Oscar Daniels, negroes convicted on a charge of assaulting and causing the death of a white girl. Dealers in the town refused to sell lumber with which to build a new fence to render the hanging private. Militia from Atlanta were on guard for the third time in six weeks to preserve order. Before going on the scaffold Knox made a confession, but Daniels insisted to the last that he was innocent. The hanging was the first legal execution in Forsyth county in half a century.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 25.—The failure of the State militia at Cumming to enforce the State law provided for private executions was criticised by State officials today, who declared the hanging should have been delayed until another fence could have been erected in place of the one burned by the citizens just before the arrival of the troops.

Adjutant General William O'Bear declared the commanding officer, Major Catron, of Atlanta, should not have allowed the hanging to proceed until the fence was rebuilt.

CONTRIBUTION RETURNED.

McCormick's $12,500 Was Sent Back, Says Governor Wilson.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 25.—Governor Woodrow Wilson tonight in explaining a speech by W. J. Bryan in Michigan today with reference to a pre-convention contribution of $12,500 by Cyrus H. McCormick, declared that this money had been returned to Mr. McCormick by Cleveland P. Dodge. The Governor said he had not been consulted in the transaction and that it took place within the last 10 days. When informed about Mr. Bryan's speech he dictated the following statement:

"Governor Wilson tonight confirmed Mr. Bryan's statement reported from Oxford, Mich., that the $12,500 contributed by his classmate, Mr. Cyrus H. McCormick, to his pre-convention campaign fund, had been refunded. He said, however, Mr. Bryan must have been in part misquoted. 'The money was returned, but not at my request. It was done upon the initiative of Mr. Dodge and Mr. McCormick themselves. It was characteristic of them. They have illustrated again what they illustrated so often while they were trustees of the university during my presidency there. They have always tried to act in such a way as to help me and yet leave me free.'"

Governor Wilson said he did not know of Mr. McCormick's contribution to his pre-convention fund until after he had been named. Mr. McCormick, he added, had not contributed to his campaign fund after the convention. The Governor said Mr. McCormick's contribution was made as one of a group of "Princeton friends' " from whom Mr. Dodge obtained support for the Wilson candidacy. The money was given to Mr. McCombs, Governor Wilson's manager, in a lump sum by Mr. Dodge, who did not designate the individual contributions. The Governor added that Mr. Dodge was not the treasurer of his pre-convention campaign, but merely a contributor.

Herman Ridder, former treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, called on the Governor today. The nominee said it was a "complimentary visit." Governor Wilson will see the Dartmouth-Princeton football game here tomorrow afternoon.

AN INTERESTING SUIT

Man Ejected From Street Car at Greensboro Secures $600

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 25.—An interesting civil suit was decided in Superior Court yesterday afternoon late when a jury in the case of J. J. Mashburn and wife against the North Carolina Public Service Corporation, awarded the plaintiffs damages in the sum of $600. They sued for $5,000, the basis for suit was the charge that a motorman in the employ of the Public Service corporation here knocked Mashburn off his car one day about a year ago. The defendant set up as a defense that Mashburn was using vulgar and obscene language and that force was required; that in putting the said Marshburn off the car it was doing nothing more than observing the laws of North Carolina prohibiting the use of obscene language on public conveyances. The jury didn't just agree with the contention although its mild verdict under the circumstances indicated that the contention was not without merit.

A pretty wedding was solemnized here yesterday when Miss Fannie Chapman became the bride of William C. Dudley. Both the bride and groom are from Reidsville where Mr. Dudley is telegraph operator. The wedding ceremony was performed at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. Thos. G. Faulkner. The couple motored over from Rockingham with friends for the purpose of plighting their troth here.

Record-breaking sales of tobacco occurred on the local markets yesterday when both warehouses had sales lasting until after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. In one of the warehouses 790 pounds of tobacco sold for $324.08, or an average of $40.89 per hundred, a record-breaker.

GIVES HALF A MILLION

General Educational Board Aids Central and Southern Colleges

New York, Oct. 25.—More than a half million dollars was appropriated by the General Education Board founded by John D. Rockefeller today toward the financial aid of colleges in Central and Southern States and, for the first time, toward agricultural demonstration work on farms in Northern States.

Of $445,000 voted to educational institutions the largest single sum goes to Baker University, of Baldwin, Kas., which will receive $125,000. The University of Denver, at Denver, Col., and Mississippi College, at Clinton, Miss., each receive $100,000, Central College, at Fayette, Mo., $75,000, Lawrence College, of Appleton, Wis., $40,000 and Penns School, of St. Helena, S. C., $5,000.

Within the last few years the board has appropriated $659,700 for carrying out agricultural demonstration work in Southern States, and today it voted to extend this work to Maine and New York State, appropriating a total of 39,500 for this work. The General Education Board was incorporated 10 years ago and endowed by John D. Rockefeller for the promotion of general education endeavors.

DIAZ DIES TODAY

Mexican Rebel Leader Probably Sentenced—Death Announced

Vera Cruz, Mex., Oct. 25.—The courtmartial of General Felix Diaz began at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The execution of Senors Lima and Migoni, two of his officers, has been fixed for tomorrow morning. It is probable that General Diaz will be shot at the same time. The remaining officers of the Diaz revolt will receive sentences of imprisonment.

Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 25.—Extra editions of the newspapers late tonight gave the report that General Felix Diaz, the leader of the recent revolt at Vera Cruz had been sentenced to death by a courtmartial. The story was received with doubt by a large part of the public, who were reluctant to believe that the commandant of the Federal forces at Vera Cruz had ignored the order of the Federal judge of the district court here removing Diaz from jurisdiction of the military court.

Nevertheless the friends of Diaz tonight were untiring in their efforts to secure a suspension of the sentence of death, if it has been imposed.

were Cleveland H. Dodge, New York; Rolla C. Wells, St. Louis, treasurer of the committee; Thomas B. Lockwood, Buffalo; Hugh Wallace, Tacoma, Wash.; Charles R. Smith, Menasha, Wis.; C. A. Spreckles, New York; J. C. C. Mayo, Paintsville, Ky.; Senator Watson, of West Virginia; Roger C. Sullivan, Chicago; Nathan Straus, New York, and former Senator Clark, of Montana.

Other contributions were from David Hyman, New York, $2,500; Mrs. N. McCormick Blaine, $1,000; Senator O'Gorman, of New York, $1,000; William Church Osborne, New York, $3,000; Herman A. Metz, New York, $1,000; Mayor Carter Harrison, Chicago, $200; and Dr. J. B. Murphy, Chicago, who recently attended Col. Theodore Roosevelt in that city, $100.

The statement shows that the chief items of expenditures were for printing, postage, newspaper advertising, salaries and traveling expenses of speakers and the Presidential nominee.

RIOTING IN CUBA.

U. S. May Take Hand in Serious Election Situation.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The serious situation in Cuba, as demonstrated by last night's riot in Havana, is exciting the gravest solicitude of the United States Government. Reports indicate good grounds for the apprehension that the approaching election period in Cuba would be a most critical test of the stability of the island Republic.

Between now and next Friday, election day, many political meetings are to be held throughout the island, with every indication that there will be stormy clashes between the two great parties. Officials fear that the defeated party will not abide by the result, but will break out in open revolution, even if pre-election order is enforced. The conservative leaders, it is reported, already have given warning of such an intention, basing their threat upon the allegation that President Gomez has been favoring the Zayaistas or Liberal party, of which he is a representative, although Zayas himself professes to distrust President Gomez, with whom he has a bitter personal quarrel.

In the opinion of Cuban Minister Senor Rivero, there is no foundation for the reports that President Gomez is seeking to resign his office at this critical moment and he is positive that the President will maintain an attitude of strict impartiality. The minister himself has been in conference with the State Department officials here in regard to the situation, which he confidently believes is within the control of President Gomez's government.

Meanwhile the general staff of the United States Army has made plans for the dispatch to Cuba of a sufficient force—probably about 15,000, ready to take charge of the island if conditions should arise, making it necessary for the United States to carry out is treaty obligations.

The Cuban situation probably will have the immediate attention of President Taft when he returns to Washington tomorrow.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW.

Mercantile Interests Experience Another Week of Heavy Trade.

New York, Oct. 25.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

The mercantile interests of the country, speaking of the collectively, have experienced another week of exceptionally active trade. Jobbers of all staple lines have enjoyed a brisk business and calls for Winter goods have come to the front in a noteworthy way. Incidentally buying for future account, for next Spring, is becoming more conspicuous. The relatively most active zones are the West, Northwest and Southwest, which sections have been blessed by bounteous crops. Even the South, for a long time comparatively backward, is showing greater life, thanks to free marketing of cotton, though things remain rather slow in the South Atlantic regions. Shipping rooms, particularly of dry goods houses, are overtaxed in getting out orders, and manufacturers in most industries are working to China.

The iron and steel industry continues in an enviable position, further advances in prices are being made and the railways have bought more freely than at any time this year. Collections are improving and while matters in this respect are not yet entirely favorable, the trend indicates that bills are being met more promptly.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending October 24th, were 229 against 187 last week; 231 in the like week of 1911; 220 in 1910; 217 in 1909, and 241 in 1908.

STRIKE IS SETTLED.

Columbia Street Railway Will Resume Operations Toady.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 25.—After conferences lasting all the morning between the strikers, representatives of the company and voluntary mediators, it was announced this afternoon that the strike of the local motormen and conductors had been settled and that cars would resume operation tomorrow morning. The company, it was announced, agreed to recognize the local union. The company had refused to sign a contract with the Amalgamated Association, and their refusal to do so precipitated the strike.

A Penny and a Five-Dollar Gold Piece

Bear a distinct family resemblance in size, if not in relation of quality. Consequently if the gold piece is kept in close association with pennies it is likely to share the fate of being taken for one, or rather GIVEN for one, as happened not long ago with a friend of ours.

The lady paid the milkman, as she thought, fifteen cents, but in reality handed him fourteen pennies and the little gold piece, not discovering her error until the following day.

The American National Bank

A splendid Old-Fashioned Barbecue and other refreshments will be served, just after the sale. Those who want to invest their money where it will yield the biggest dividends are invited. I will clear about $3,000 above expenses on this Farm this year. It will be sold strictly on its merits.
